The Normal diploma is a life state certificate to teach. Cost of attending school is small. For further information or catalogue address, adv W. S. DEARMONT, President.

Died.

Mrs. Theresa Ruebsom, nee Isenmann, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens died at her home near Weingarten Tuesday afternoon, September 14, 1915, aged 76 years, 11 months and 26 days, after having been an invalid for a long time. Mrs. Ruebsom is survived by an aged husband, Adam Ruebsom and 11 children, one sister, Mrs. Valentine Rottler, Sr., and two brothers, John and Joseph Isenmann. The funeral took place from the Catholic Church at Weingarten Thursday morning.

James C. Thompson died suddenly of heart disease at his home in Crystal City Monday morning, September 13, 1915, aged 54 years. He is survived by his wife and five children, Mrs. Carrie Schaeffer, Misses Addie, Bertha and Florence and sons, Jack and Alphonso. Mr. Thompson was well known and had many friends in this city, having lived here for several years before moving to Crystal City. He was born and raised near Modoc, Ill. The funeral was held from the Catholic Church at Festus at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and the remains were interred in the Festus cemetery.

The death of Joseph Bader occurred at the home of his son, Max J. Bader, near River aux Vases on Thursday evening, September 9, 1915. The deceased had been ill for a long time and had reached the age of 77 years, 5 months and 14 days. He was born in Baden, Germany, March 25, 1838, and came to America in 1854 and settled in this county where he has resided ever since. He was married to Miss Mary Witte of New Offenburg who succeeded him to the grave several years ago. He is survived by 6 children, Leonora, Mrs. Peter Kiefer, Mrs. Mary Gettinger, Joseph, William L., and Max J. Bader of this county and John B. Bader of Austin, Texas, 29 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. The funeral took place from the Catholic Church Saturday morning and the remains were interred in the Valle Spring Cemetery.

The body was brought to St. Genevieve Wednesday morning and taken to the Catholic Church where the funeral services were held and the remains were interred in the Valle Spring Cemetery.

Mrs. Schilly was a resident of this city until the death of her husband, which occurred about 23 years ago. Since then she has been making her home with her daughter in St. Louis.

She is survived by five children, Mr. Veronica Rottler of this city, Mrs. Anna Schuller and Henry Schilly of St. Louis, Joseph Schilly of East St. Louis, Mrs. Sophia Santer and stepson, Georgia Schilly of Memphis, Tenn., and two brothers, George and Frank Kohn of this city.

Mrs. Anna Schuller and Henry Schilly and wife accompanied the remains to this city.

Budded on Earth to Bloom in Heaven.

Little Ellis Lemwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brantzer, peaceable passed away Saturday morning, September 11, 1915, and the remains were laid to rest in the Valle Spring Cemetery. His stay with us was only three short weeks, but we had all learned to love him dearly, and it was hard to break the tender cord that bound this little life to ours. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh, Blessed be the name of the Lord.

Streets to be Oiled.

At the regular meeting of the City Council last Monday night, an ordinance relating to the oiling of streets was passed and approved.

The streets are to be divided into three districts. District No. 1 comprises the principal streets where the traffic is heaviest. Special tax bills will be levied against the abutting property owners in the three districts. 2 cents per lineal foot in district No. 1; 1 cent in district No. 2, and 1/2 cent in district No. 3. Oil was ordered and is expected to arrive and be spread within the next week. Our streets have been very dusty for the last few weeks and the spreading of oil upon them will be a great comfort to our citizens.

An ordinance amending the ordinance recently adopted raising Dram Shop licenses to take effect September 1, 1915, so that it would take effect January 1, 1916, was introduced and passed the Board by a vote of four to two. Mayor Boverie withholding his approval to the amendment.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Minutes of previous meetings were read and approved.

Collector's report was read and approved.

Bills to the amount of $595.40 were allowed.

A permit was granted to Joseph Vorst to erect an eight room residence on lot on corner of 3rd and Gabouri Sts.

Ordinance No. 892, an ordinance providing for the oiling of the streets was read three times and adopted.
